The lower limb & paediatric (Tr & Orth) revision course

 Saturday 15 March 2025
 Venue: Queen Elizabeth Hospital,
Woolwich, London

Convenor:

Mr Sunil Bajaj
Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon
Lewisham and Greenwich NHS Trust

Educational aims and objectives

This one-day course is specifically designed for candidates preparing for the FRCS (Tr & Orth) examinations, focusing on both lower limb and paediatric orthopaedics through viva and clinical sessions, as well as clinical demonstrations.

The course structure includes:

- Viva and clinical sessions where candidates will examine both adult and paediatric patients
- Interactive discussions and clinical case presentations that highlight tips and tricks for correct examination techniques
- Instant feedback provided to candidates at the end of each session

Participants will have numerous opportunities to ask questions to the faculty, which includes consultants specialising in lower limb and paediatric orthopaedic surgery, as well as senior trainees who have recently passed the exams and are eager to share their insights and exam strategies.

Registration fees

Fee: £200

We only have 12 spaces available for the full course, so please ensure you book early to avoid disappointment.
